Cleveland, Sept. 25.—This city has a judge who has a plan for making it safe for citizens to cross the street.

He deals out jail sentences to rich men, poor men, society women and joy-riders.

Since July 1 he has sentenced 25 traffic violators to jail.

This number included Mrs. Margaret Henry, society woman, and Milton J. Dyer, clubman and architect, who designed Cleveland's $3,000,000 city hall and the workhouse to which he has been sentenced for 45 days on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.
